

JAPS GROW MORE ANTI-AMERICAN

Militaristic Leaders Denounce America at a Mass Meeting

MUZZLE IS DEMANDED

Many Influential Figures in Move to Check Radical Attitude Against U. S.

BY DICK N. DURR

TOKIO, May 27.—"Considerable feeling is growing here that Japan should muzzle its anti-American politicians who still favor political process in attacking men in the United States."

The decision of Justice David L. Johnson, labor leader whose case has attracted international attention, sought to make him release from San Quentin, where he is serving a life sentence for alleged participation in a plot to assassinate President Wilson, has caused considerable discussion in Japan.

The correspondence is shown for several days of recent trials, and it is known that these events have been suppressed at the request of the Japanese.

The man generally known as the attack by a Japanese upon the Japanese consul's son is David Johnson, an American consul at Nagasaki. In this incident the Japanese injured the boy, who is reported injured.

The other main events, news of which has been withheld, occurred at isolated points. One of the cases in particular would be significant in view of the recent developments in America and Japan.

Press Comment Adverse. The most important consideration in relations is being continued. The government headed by Togakoshi, minister to China, demanding action on their proposals to withdraw from Shantung.

Shunsho Koma, editor of the Yomiuri, former legal adviser to the foreign office and also Press representative, said in his paper:

"Opponents of the Japanese trouble concerning Johnson are growing now and becoming a fair anti-American issue. It is plain that a joint pro-American agitation is developing and Japan must act at once."

The Osaka Mainichi, commenting adversely on the appointment of an ambassador from the United States to Japan, said:

"It is understood that the pro-

Japanese propensity of some of the candidates interferes with their appointment. We cannot see why Johnson, the attorney, would be appointed to America. Johnson is known to us in which we can see no anti-American feeling. We believe in our mind that Japanese might help us in Japan."

MOONEY AGAIN LOSES

Attempt to Gain Freedom by Writ Falls; Judge Sustains a Decision to Appeal.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 27.—Thomas Mooney today lost his fight for a writ of habeas corpus.

The famous Pacific coast labor leader, whose case has attracted international attention, sought to obtain his release from San Quentin, where he is serving a life sentence for alleged participation in a plot to assassinate President Wilson.

The decision of Justice David

Lander, of the superior court, confirmed the original one.

The condemned man, who has been in prison for 20 years, is serving his sentence in solitary confinement.

Mooney, 46, was sentenced to life in 1911 for the killing of James

Parsons, a police officer.
